THE NATIONAL PASTIME LIVE TIPS ON BASEBALL

Waterbury here to-day.

.500 Springfield's protest of the second game of the double header in New 481
Haven two weeks ago has been thrown back for a loss. The Pony manager kicked over the traces, claiming the game should have been played two hours before sun down. The rule of the National agreement says that games must start two hours before sun down, but President Tracy rules that this does not apply to double headers. The first game lasted three hours and the second was finished at 6:45 after six innings were played.

Word comes from Springfield that Manager Zeller has given up playing the first bag, Bill Luby now covering that position. Bill will still continue to pitch. The withdrawal of Zeller Luck still pursues that Hartford was at'the request of the Springfield fans who were grouchy because he let Bill Yale get away from him. Zeller played the bag himself as he let bat have had an off day. The little low is the life of the local infield.

cher Doll of the New Haven team agen fined $25 by Manager Bone of giving Bill Luby of Springfield se on balls as directed in the ninth of of the Springfield New Haven he bags when Luby hit safely, men scoring and winning the With this class of play by the Bone we can see the Underse resting in last place.

To-morrow afternoon at Newfield Park there will be a double header between Industrial League teams. The first game between the league leaders, the Union Typewriter team and the Crane Valve Co. No. 1 team will be called at 2:30. The game between the U. M. C. Co. last year's champions and the Crane Valve Co., No. 2 team will follow immediately. The admission will be 25 cents including grand stand.

ORATORS PLAY CLOSE GAME

in Last Half of Third Inning Hartford Men Batted Ball Ferociously. (Hartford Courant.)

The Orators showed scant consideration for Ivor Swanson's slants yesterday afternoon and banged him all over the lot until Captain Connery decided it was time to checkmate the bingo business. He sent out Chickering Evans, whose engagement ring finger was ripped up about two weeks ago, and Chic put a crimp into the run getting. Bridgeport made two runs after Chic went into the box but the runners were helped around by errors. helped around by errors. About 1,900 baseball lovers were out yesterday and there was more chin music from the bleachers than has been heard this seableachers than has been heard this sea-som. It is probable that the intense heat is affecting some of the fanatics. I. Paul Steinberg was the subject of much of the epithets hurled from the bleachers and he was dubbed a lobster a crab, a mollusk with tartar sauce and other fancy names associated with the crustacean family.

GAMES TOMORROW IN INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

To-morrow will be bargain day at Newfield Park, half of the Industrial league teams meeting. The first game will start immediately at 2:30, and will be between the Union Typewriter Co. and Crane Valvo Co. No. 1. There are a number of old sores to be healed up in this contest, the Valve makers promising to silp the hook on the Typewriters. Amos Johnson, the crack West End pitcher will make his first appearance of the season with the Typewriters and will have Wilson at the receiving station. The Cranes will use Joe McCarthy, whose slants have been puzzling a number of the local teams for a few years back. Mac will be ably assisted by Mosher behind the bat. Yogts will be without the services of Captain Keenan, who is laid up with an injured knee cap received To-morrow will be bargain day at a crab, a mollusk with tartar sauce and other fancy mames associated with the crustacean family.

Hi Ladd started the second inning with a solid crack for a hase. Miller was given a base on balls, McKenna hit to right and Ladd scored although he should have been called out. Bourquin struck out. McKenna stole second and scored on a hit by Kocher. Romer and Steinhauser were out on infield taps. For Hartford, the feature was the running of McKenna, who was caught between first and second after he had been hit in the back with a pitched ball. It took the entire infield to run him to earth.

Swanson was knocked out of the box in the third. Bannon led off with a savage welt for two bags. Hill bunted but Swanson waited so long before he got the ball that the runner was safe. Ladd pounded out another two heads of the box in the crane played on the ball to run him to earth.
